

Slide 1: Title

Social Media as a Tool for Marketing in Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Capstone Project

Slide 2: Introduction

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a business approach where organizations contribute to society through ethical practices, sustainability, education and community development. Social media helps organizations communicate CSR activities effectively.

Slide 3: Social Media Marketing

Platforms: Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube and X (Twitter).

Benefits: Brand Awareness, Customer Engagement, Global Reach, Trust Building.

Slide 4: Why CSR Needs Social Media

- Faster Communication
- Transparency
- Higher Public Awareness
- Better Customer Engagement
- Improved Brand Reputation

Slide 5: Popular Platforms

Facebook – Community Engagement

Instagram – Visual Storytelling

LinkedIn – Professional Branding

YouTube – CSR Videos

X – Real-time Updates

Slide 6: Research Findings

72% of consumers prefer socially responsible brands.

65% engage more with CSR videos.

Consistent CSR communication improves trust and reputation.

Slide 7: Company Examples

Microsoft – Education

Google – Sustainability

Tata Group – Healthcare & Education

Unilever – Environmental Protection

Slide 8: Challenges

Fake CSR campaigns, misinformation, negative comments, transparency and measuring campaign success.

Slide 9: Conclusion

Social media is one of the strongest tools for promoting CSR initiatives, increasing awareness, building trust and creating positive social impact.

Slide 10: Thank You

Questions?

Thank You!